

Fayette Forward

The Fayette County Comprehensive Transportation Plan

Draft Plan Recommendations

What is this Meeting for?

Fayette County is currently in the process of identifying future transportation projects and, with the help of community input provided from past public meetings and workshops, is ready to share the first draft of plan recommendations. Please come and learn about the Fayette Forward team's work and share your thoughts and input. From here the team will focus on its final recommendations, so it's important now to make yourself heard!
